RELEASE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY

I understand that blacksmithing is an inherently dangerous activity and acknowledge that there are risks inherent in its practice, including among others:

- (1) the risk of burns from:
 - a. handling hot metals and flux;
 - b. the use of and proximity to the forge;
 - c. the use of one or more torches;
 - d. exposure to fire, hot coals and high temperature iron, steel and other objects, as well as "forge scale" (the oxidized outer surface of metal that falls off during the forging process);
- (2) the risk of wounds, cuts and abrasions from exposure to sharp hand tools, power tools and objects, and the use of hand tools, power tools and sharp objects by others;
- (3) the risk of injury including cuts, burns and permanent injury from the use of hand tools and power tools and the use of hand and power tools by others;
- (4) the risk injury from falling objects;
- (5) the risk of injury from smoke and solvents;
- (6) loss of hearing and loss of eyesight;
- (7) the risk of serious permanent injury or death.

I understand that my carelessness, negligence or failure to act within my abilities may contribute to or result in an injury to me, my property, or to others. I also understand that I may be injured if others present fail to act carefully, and that Door County Forgeworks, LLC cannot provide constant supervision and monitoring of all observers and participants. Injuries can and do happen. Door County Forgeworks, LLC hereby specifically disclaims any and all responsibility or liability for, and I hereby irrevocably release Door County Forgeworks, LLC from, any and all
